

Narrator: Jane Ellis
Interviewer: Jim Harris
Indexer: Steven Coward

# 4700.0005
Session I
August 1975

Tape 5, Side A

Counter #

001 Reasons for existence of the Parent Consultation Program
010 Everyday crises dealt with by social services
025 Need for preparation to properly handle crises
045 Mechanisms to enable children to break away from parents
060 Need for support groups among parents
075 Format for conducting these groups
095 Changing family roles as the family size increases
120 Mother's role
150 Reasons parents should be familiar with normal stages of child development
170 Dealing with adolescent alienation from parents
200 Good parent/child relationships, discipline, boundaries
270 Schools' handling of hyperactive children
290 Remarks on the Baton Rouge Parent Consultation program
350 Effects of parental group meetings
420 Positive reinforcement of the family structure
460 Parents' need for recreation away from their children
480 Single parent families
550 Establishing parent support groups