

T. Harry Williams Center for Oral History

ABSTRACT

INTERVIEWEE NAME: Maurice Morrissette

COLLECTION: 4700.0308

IDENTIFICATION: Professor and head of the Department of Veterinary Physiology, Pharmacology, and Toxicology at LSU's School of Veterinary Medicine, 1969-1982; Assistant to the dean of the vet school for facility planning and control, 1982-1987

INTERVIEWER: Everett Besch

SERIES: University History – Distinguished Faculty & Administrators

INTERVIEW DATE(S): June 23, 1993

FOCUS DATES: 1942-1987

ABSTRACT:

Tape 433

Family history; early jobs; service in the Coast guard, 1942-1945; experiences on the East and West coasts; duty in the North Atlantic and the Pacific; career development; arrival at LSU as veterinary school is being planned, designed, and established; duties as chairman of the building committee for LSU School of Veterinary Medicine; procuring funding from Congress for building the facility.

TAPE: 1 (T433)

TOTAL PLAYING TIME: 1 hour, 33 minutes

# PAGES TRANSCRIPT: 80 pages

RESTRICTIONS: None