BIOGRAPHICAL AND HISTORICAL NOTE

The Barrow family moved to the area of Louisiana known as Nuevo Feliciana in 1799, and built several plantation homes in the area, including Highland, Ambrosia and Afton Villa. They were known as one of the wealthiest families in Louisiana in the antebellum period. Highland Plantation was built ca. 1804 by William Ruffin Barrow, and originally named Locust Ridge. It was eventually occupied by the Barrow Norwoods, descendants of John Joor Barrow through his daughter, Margaret Leake Barrow Norwood, the sister of Abram Feltus Barrow. In 1973 it was sold by the Barrow family to Theodore G. Solomon.

Abram Feltus Barrow (1868-1928) was the son of John Joor Barrow (1833-1890) and Eleanor Eliza Ruffin. He married Camilla Leake (ca. 1873-1957). They had five children: Eleanor Eliza (1894-1983), Frank Leake (1898-1948), who married Lora May Schober, Johnston Armstrong (ca. 1903-1968), Margaret, who married Joseph A. Pullen, and Amelia Armstrong, who married Robert Beale. Camilla Leake Barrow was the daughter of Judge William Walter Leake (1833-1912) and Margaret Emmet Mumford (d. 1904). She had two sisters, Amelia Leake (who married Johnston Armstrong) and Belle Leake (who married Lauren J. Bradley), and one brother, John.

Abram Feltus Barrow graduated from Louisiana State University and earned a medical degree at Tulane University. He practiced medicine in St. Francisville, where he maintained a sanatorium and served as a member of the Louisiana State Board of Medical Examiners (1894-1907). He was mayor of St. Francisville and served on the West Feliciana Parish School Board (1916-24), where he was succeeded by his wife. He was a Captain in the United States Army Medical Corps in 1918, and was stationed at Camp Logan, Texas. Barrow was prominent in Masonic life, being Master of Feliciana Lodge, No. 31, representative of the Louisiana Grand Lodge, Grand Master of the Louisiana Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Patron of the Order of the Eastern Star (Grand Chapter), High Priest of the Royal Arch Chapter and Chancellor in the Knights of Pythias. He was also a member of the Jerusalem Temple of the Mystic Circle, Woodmen of the World, Woodmen Circle and Rebekah Lodge.

Camilla Leake Barrow was Matron of the Order of the Eastern Star (Laurel Chapter No. 44), and Grand Secretary of its Grand Chapter, and held offices in the Baton Rouge and Louisiana divisions of the Daughters of the American Revolution. William Walter Leake was a partner in the law firm of Collins and Leake, with J. Hunter Collins. He was a Master of Feliciana Lodge, No. 31, and Grand Senior Warden of the Grand Lodge of Louisiana. He was also President of the People's Bank, St. Francisville (1905-12).

The records of St. John's Church, Laurel Hill, West Feliciana, are largely comprised of the papers of the churchwarden, John Burruss McGehee (1836-1913). McGehee was a churchman and agriculturalist, and owned Woodlawn Farm, West Feliciana. He established St. John's in 1872.

I. Business and Legal Correspondence and Papers, 1866-1878

Subseries 1. Abram Feltus Barrow, 1886 -1957

Of significance are papers relating to property owned by the Leake and Barrow families. Two acts of sale (1906) transfer property belonging to members of the Leake family, fronting Royal Street, St. Francisville, to Abram Feltus Barrow. A suit (Nov. 23, 1915) brought against Abram Feltus Barrow on behalf of the Leake family concerns mortgage notes held on their property. A lease contract between Abram Feltus Barrow and George K. Force (Oct. 10, 1911) allowed the latter to quarry sand and gravel on Highland Plantation. Also of note is the sale of a lot in Grace Church cemetery to the Barrow family (Jan. 21, 1904). Other papers relate to policies with the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Co. and Union Mutual Insurance Co.

Military service papers (1918-1957) relate to Abram Feltus Barrow's service as Captain of the Medical Corps, 15th Division, 57th Infantry at Camp Logan, Texas, and to claims for disability compensation by his family. There are certificates of appointment as Captain (Sept. 24, 1918) and as a reserve officer in the Voluntary Medical Service Corps (Nov., 1918). Correspondence covers notices of appointment, honorable discharge (Dec. 10, 1918), special orders and problems concerning an inventory of army medical property after the closure of Camp Logan (1919). Other material includes a copy of a first-aid lecture (undated), compensation claims made after the death of Abram Feltus Barrow by members of his family (1931-1957) and a service ribbon (unidentified, undated).

Medical papers (1910-1928) document Abram Feltus Barrow's membership of various medical societies. Certificates and licenses include certificates of practice for Louisianian and American Medical Societies (1920-1928), a physician's license (1920), and a certificate of registration to dispense and use narcotics, issued by the Louisiana State Board of Health (July 1, 1925). There are several passes as local surgeon for the Louisiana Railway and Navigation Co. (1910-28), and two pamphlets explaining fees and regulations for surgeons working for the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley Railroad Co. (1900, 1908).

General business papers are comprised of dividend checks, banking receipts and letters.

Subseries 3. Eleanor Eliza Barrow, 1936-1978.

Papers of note are those concerned with the sale of Highland Plantation to Theodore G. Solomon (Aug.-Oct., 1973) and with the probate matter of Mary B. Mumford who died intestate (April, 1975- Feb., 1978). There is also correspondence dealing with the distribution of profits from a timber sale after the death of Johnston Armstrong Barrow (1970) and a copy of Eleanor's delayed certificate of birth (July 30, 1946).

Subseries 4. Barrow and Leake Families, 1804-1960.

Of note is the contract between William Barrow and John Arick to build Highland Plantation, which includes the payment of $800, Arick's board, and the loan of three slaves (1804, original housed in vault). Joor Barrow and his two eldest sons, Bennet L. Barrow and Elwyn Barrow, transfers land on Highland Plantation in payment of a debt of John Barrow to his sons (Jan. 9, 1882). Also included are share certificates, Medical School lecture passes for John J. Barrow (1853-1855), bills of lading for the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley Railroad Co. (1924) and a list of supplies taken to Port Hudson during the Civil War (July 31, 1863).

Subseries 5. Creole Oil and Mineral Company, 1900-1929.

The Creole Oil and Mineral Company was formed to manage land in Calcasieu Parish, but the property remained undeveloped. Abram F. Barrow was president of the company from 1900-1922. The bulk of the material consists of tax receipts and stock certificates. A letter (May 16, 1922) discusses an apparently unauthorized sale of the land, which was eventually bought up by the Percy Co. A new company was formed 1928-1929 (see above, business papers of Camilla Leake Barrow).

Subseries 6. People's Bank, St Francisville (La.) Records, 1905-13.

Leake was president from 1905-1912, and was succeeded by the cashier, Kemp C. Smith. The majority of the materials consist of receipts, customers' drafts, promissory notes, share certificates, mortgages and deeds of sale made over to the bank for collateral and keeping. Of note are the papers detailing the abstract of title, warranty deed and authorization for sale of a lot in Davidson, Oklahoma (Feb., 1909-Aug., 1910). There is correspondence concerning notes held by other banks (1912), including Commercial-Germania Trust and Savings (New Orleans, La.), Hibernia Bank and Trust Co.
