BIOGRAPHICAL/HISTORICAL NOTE

Seymour Weiss was born in Bunkie, Louisiana. In his early years, he was a clerk in Alexandria and New Orleans; he later worked at the Roosevelt Hotel in New Orleans in various capacities eventually becoming manager and principle owner. He was a confidant of Louisiana Governor and U.S. Senator Huey P. Long, who made the Roosevelt Hotel his headquarters. Weiss served as treasurer of the State Democratic Association and treasurer of Long's secret political fund from the late 1920s through 1935. He was also active in numerous civic associations in New Orleans. (Cf. A Dictionary of Louisiana Biography for further details on Weiss' life and career.)

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The bulk of the collection consists of photographs of Seymour Weiss and others, including celebrities and politicians. Circulars (1927-1935) in the collection announce speeches and positions of Huey P. Long and other Louisiana politicians, such as Governor O. K. Allen, John H. Overton, and Gerald L. K. Smith. Also present are political cartoons by Trist (Trist Wood); stationery and campaign cards (1927-1934) for various Louisiana candidates; letters, primarily mimeographed, of Huey P. Long related to issues of concern to Louisiana citizens; campaign posters; and miscellaneous items such as automobile stickers, campaign badges, sample ballots, and receipts. Also included are sheet music for "Every Man a King," "Follow Long" and several other songs, with words by Huey P. Long. Ephemera consist of items such as doubloons, coins, scrapbooks, appointment books, and certificates. Ephemera from Weiss' Roosevelt Hotel are included. Newspaper clippings are also present.

SUBGROUP AND SERIES DESCRIPTIONS

Subgroup 1. Huey Pierce Long: Campaign and Political Materials, 1927-1955, undated

Note: Subgroup 1 was partially processed at an earlier date, and an item inventory was created. The revised item inventory appears as APPENDIX A.

Series I. Circulars, 1927-1955, undated

Circulars from the campaigns of Huey P. Long in his quest for Louisiana Governor and United States Senator, as well as those from other candidates such as O. K. Allen, John Klorer, and John B. Fournet. Circulars entitled "Complete the Work Ticket" list Long and other candidates running on his ticket. Other circulars include advertisements for Long's political speeches. Includes both regular and oversized materials.

Series II. Cartoons, 1930-1932, undated

Various cartoons by the artist, Trist, depicting scenes both in support of and against Huey Long during his campaigns and political controversies. Several cartoons depicting slogans against anti-Long politicians are present. Politicians such as E. A. Conway, Percy Saint, John M. Parker, Ruffin Pleasant, and John Overton are also depicted. Located in the oversized materials.

Series III. Stationery, 1930-1932, undated

Blank stationery with letterhead from politicians, such as Huey Long, as well as an envelope from "Huey P. Long, U.S. Senator, New Orleans."

Series IV. Campaign Cards, 1928-1934, undated

Campaign cards promoting Huey Long and others. The series also includes elections for various political offices.

Series V. Letters, 1927-1934, undated

Several "Dear Friend" letters from Huey P. Long asking his supporters to distribute circulars and other campaign information and reminding them to vote in the upcoming election. Circular letters from Long to the public regarding various issues also are included. Correspondence also consists of campaign letters from other candidates asking for support.

Series VI. Posters, 1927-1934, undated

Includes campaign posters supporting Huey Long for U.S. Senate as well as those of other candidates, such as O. K. Allen, John Overton, and John Klorer. Located in oversized material.

Series VII. Campaign Material, 1927-1934

Includes automobile stickers, campaign badges, sample ballots, receipts, and petitions. Materials are primarily from Huey Long's campaigns for both Louisiana Governor and U.S. Senator. Materials from other candidates also are present. Included are sample ballots from Orleans and Jefferson Parish precincts, as well as a subscription enrollment form for the American Progress, a weekly newspaper sponsored by Huey Long. Includes both regular and oversized materials.

Series VIII. Sheet Music, 1935

Sheet music to "Every Man a King" and "Follow Long." The series also includes LSU sheet music with lyrics written and dedicated by Long to the co-eds of Vanderbilt University.

Series IX. Typescripts, 1934, undated

Includes a typescript entitled, "The Nigger in the Wood Pile, the Bug under the Chip" and two oversized typescripts from 1934, one listing highlights of the New Orleans election dispute between Huey Long and Mayor T. Semmes Walmsley, and the other, "When Headlines Screamed: The Inside Story of the Louisiana Fracas," containing extensive quotations from Long about his presidential campaign platform and achievements. Includes both regular and oversized materials.

Series X. Miscellaneous, 1928-1933

Letters to Mr. George Doyle of New Orleans from Franklin D. Roosevelt (FDR) and one letter from James Roosevelt in regard to politics. The letters were photocopied, and the originals were placed in the vault.

Subgroup 2. Seymour Weiss: Personal and Career, 1927-1972, undated

Series I. Correspondence, 1949-1972, undated

Contains letters to and from Seymour Weiss, his wife, and others regarding Weiss' involvement with state politics, such as his service on the Louisiana Tourist Development Commission. Congratulatory letters to politicians upon being elected to office, as well as letters regarding Weiss' involvement in civic organizations are included. Correspondence during Weiss' career at the Roosevelt Hotel are present, including letters from celebrities such as Bing Crosby and Jimmy Durante, as well as politicians such as Hubert Humphrey. All VIP correspondence was photocopied, and the originals were placed in the vault. Also included are letters to Mrs. Weiss upon Mr. Weiss' death. Thank-you notes to contributors from the Seymour Weiss Organization are present.

Series II. Roosevelt Hotel, 1934-1970, undated

Contains issues of publications pertaining to the hotel business, such as Hotel Management, Southern Hotel Journal, The Hotel Monthly, Tavern Talk, and Hotel Gazette. Most feature Weiss and the Roosevelt Hotel. Miscellaneous publications include separate articles from these magazines as well as hotel newsletters. Other items regarding the Roosevelt Hotel are also present, such as the safety manual and programs from events involving Weiss. Other items include sheet music and a check to Weiss that was formerly framed. The series contains items from the American Hotel Association Testimonial Dinner honoring Weiss.

Series III. Scrapbooks, 1927-1957, undated

Includes items from several scrapbooks that belonged to Seymour Weiss. When necessary, items were removed from scrapbooks for archival purposes. The empty original scrapbooks were retained. Items that were removed were kept in the original order. Loose photographs were placed with the other photographs of the collection. Scrapbooks entitled "My Scrapbook" contain correspondence, printed items, letterhead and business cards, and an article entitled "The Menace of Huey Long," from 1935. Several letters with VIP signatures were photocopied, and originals were placed in the vault. A scrapbook entitled "Mrs. Sol Kaplan" includes numerous newspaper and magazine clippings, photographs, printed items, and correspondence. Materials from this scrapbook are archival photocopies. Scrapbook material includes correspondence from friends of Weiss congratulating him for being honored at the American Hotel Association's Testimonial Dinner in 1957. The material was compiled in a scrapbook entitled "Testimonial Dinner honoring Seymour Weiss." Two identical scrapbooks entitled M.V. Louisiana include pictures of Weiss' attendance at the opening of the M.V. Louisiana ship.

Series IV. Printed Material, 1933-1972, undated

Newspaper clippings regarding Huey Long's and Weiss' involvement with the Overton Senate Campaign, as well as clippings of Weiss' participation in business and civic organizations, such as Delgado Community College, and area hospitals. The series includes other printed materials from Weiss' involvement with civic and political activities and organizations, such as a report from the Louisiana Department of Commerce and Industry. Books include Favorite Huey Long Stories edited by Dr. Hugh Mercer; Kidnapped by the Kingfish, by Sam Irby; Louisianians in Caricature as Seen by Roy Aymond; The Day Huey Long Was Shot by David Zinman; The Huey Long Murder Case by Hermann B. Deutsch; and Every Man a King, the Autobiography of Huey P. Long (autographed by Long). A speech delivered by John H. Overton about Huey Long shortly after his death is included. Other printed materials include sheet music, pamphlets, menus, and brochures from events that were attended by Seymour Weiss as well as invitations to various functions, such as the inaugurations of Richard Nixon and Lyndon Baines Johnson. Several copies of Weiss' Winter Book, which is a pamphlet describing the players of a card game, are also present. A copy of a magazine entitled The Candidate, autographed by Jimmy Durante, was removed and placed in the vault.

Series V. Ephemera, circa 1930-1969, undated

Contains admittance cards from Huey Long's U.S. Senate career and other memorabilia regarding Long. The majority of the ephemera include memorabilia from Weiss' civic activities and career, as well as personal belongings. Doubloons and commemorative coins from various events are included. Other personal items include appointment books, memorandum books, badges with Weiss' name, and a wallet with his initials engraved on it. Hotel ephemera includes a deck of cards from the Blue Room of the Roosevelt Hotel and a guest register from the Roosevelt Hotel, containing letters from several political figures and celebrities such as Eleanor Roosevelt and Jimmy Durante. This guest register is housed in the vault. The original boards from the guest register are housed with the empty scrapbooks. Also included in the ephemera are certificates presented to Weiss during his lifetime for achievements, and some awarded posthumously. Includes both regular and oversize materials. For an item inventory of ephemera, see APPENDIX B attached.

Series VI. Photographs, 1932-1970, undated

Most photographs were removed from scrapbooks and the original order was maintained. The series consists of photographs of Seymour Weiss, including press photographs of Louisiana political campaigns, photographs of family, friends, politicians, and associates, posed portraits of Weiss, candid photographs of Weiss and others, events such as the American Hotel Association Testimonial Dinner, Hollywood photos, and items removed from Weiss' scrapbooks. A signed photograph of Franklin D. Roosevelt to Weiss was removed and placed in the vault. For a folder inventory of all photographs in the collection, see APPENDIX C attached.
